
Unequal free-generation output lengths; not per-token latency or measured speed. Old protocol; no source/sample identity hashes.